

VIII POSTGRADUATE CONFERENCE

MANAGEMENT, HOSPITALITY & TOURISM
ESGHT2017

Bionote

Professor Chris Cooper is Professor in the department of Business and Management in the Faculty of Business at Oxford Brookes University, UK. Professor Cooper was Dean of the Faculty from 2009-2013. During Professor Cooper's time as Dean, the Faculty of Business achieved five-year accreditation by EPAS for its BA (Hons) Business Management and BA (Hons) International Business Management degrees and its three Hospitality MSc programmes.

Before joining Oxford Brookes University Professor Cooper built up the School of Tourism at the University of Queensland where he was Foundation Professor of Tourism and Head of the School of Tourism.

Professor Cooper gained his undergraduate degree and PhD in Geography from University College London. He works with international agencies in tourism research and education, including the European Union, the International Labour Organization, the OECD and ASEAN. He works primarily with the UN World Tourism Organisation (UNWTO) where he held the Chair of the UNWTO's Education Council from 2005 - 2007. He has very extensive international research and consultancy experience and a well established reputation as an international leader in tourism education. He is the author of a number of journal papers and books in the field and was awarded the United Nations Ulysses prize for contributions to tourism education and policy in 2009.