

TMS ALGARVE 2022

Sustainability Challenges in Tourism, Hospitality and Management

Thematic Session: Family firm management

This track aims to cover aspects related to family firm management, especially in the Tourism sector. TMS conference welcomes submissions on all essential topics to advance the knowledge on family firms including theoretical and methodological approaches. We invite papers on all aspects related to family firms including but not limited to:

- Innovation
- Internationalization
- Strategy
- Marketing
- Organizational behaviour
- Sociology
- Psychology
- Economics
- Finance and Accounting
- Succession
- Leadership
- Governance
- Entrepreneurship
- Sustainability
- Family relationships
- Emotions

Track Director:

Julio Diéguez-Soto is a Full Professor of Finance and Accounting at the University of Málaga (Spain), Faculty of Economics and Business Sciences. He is the Academic Director of Firm Feasibility Chair (Spain) and a collaborating researcher at the Research Center for Tourism, Sustainability and Well-being (Portugal). His main research interests include Performance, Capital Structure, Innovation, and Financial Literacy in Family Firms. He has published his research findings in journals such as International Journal of Entrepreneurship Behavior and Research, Baltic Journal of Management, Technology in Society, Small Business Economics, Journal of Small Business Management, Family Business Review, Journal of Family Business Strategy, Business Research Quarterly, or Review of Managerial Science, among others. <https://orcid.org/0000-0001-5116-5604>