

TMS ALGARVE 2022

Sustainability Challenges in Tourism, Hospitality and Management

Thematic Session: Film & Literature induced Tourism

This track aims to cover aspects related to Film-Induced Tourism and Literary Tourism. Topics within this track are related but not limited to:

- Film Tourist Experiences
- Film-Induced Tourism Destinations
- Film Induced Tourism Impact on Host Communities
- Film Induced Tourism and Literary Tourism Policy and Regulation
- Literary Tourism
- Digital literary Tourism
- Library Tourism
- Authenticity in Literary Tourism Places
- Authors' House
- Cinematic Representations of Literary Tourism
- Consumption and Production of Literary Places
- Intersections between literature, film, and Tourism

Track Director:

Cláudia Henriques holds a PhD in Economics (Tourism Planning and Management), an MSc in Economics and Social Policy and a BSc in Economics. She is a researcher in the field of Tourism and Hospitality with long working experience in international, multicultural environments, in team building, teamwork and team leadership. Currently, she is Adjunct Professor at the School of Management, Hospitality and Tourism, University of the Algarve (UALG). She is an integrated researcher of Tourism and Hospitality Competitiveness and Governance Research Area at the Research Centre for Tourism, Sustainability and Well-being (CinTurs). Her current research interests include Cultural and Creative Tourism, Tourism Planning and Management, Sustainable Tourism Development, among others. <https://www.cienciavita.pt/6B1F-5723-C81A>