

TMS ALGARVE 2022

Sustainability Challenges in Tourism, Hospitality and Management

Thematic Session: Sustainable Management and Development

This track aims to cover aspects related to Sustainable Management (tourism, cultural heritage, issues, resources, innovation, strategies, etc.). Topics within this track are related but not limited to:

- Sustainable Development
- Business Sustainability Management
- Sustainable Production and Consumption;
- Supply Chain Management;
- Purchase/Distribution Management;
- Environmental Management;
- (Natural) Resources Management;
- Waste Management;
- Water/Energy/Project Management;
- Management and sustainable development
- Issues in Sustainable Management
- Sustainable Management Resources
- Sustainable Management in the context of blue economy
- Sustainable Management Strategies
- Sustainable Management Innovation
- Sustainable Management Entrepreneurship

Track Director:

Antonio Juan Briones-Peñalver holds an international PhD in economics and management. He is assistant professor at Technical University of Cartagena (UPCT), Spain. He is an integrated researcher at the Research Centre for Tourism, Sustainability and Well-being (CinTurs). He researches and teaches strategical management and entrepreneurship. He is coordinator training in the UPCT. He has an outstanding trajectory in several projects of International Development Cooperation, Entrepreneurship, or Social Corporate Responsibility (SCR), and the research interest include sustainable tourism, CSR strategies, agribusiness and blue economy. <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2893-007X>